PORTRAIT · SISTAH VIBES

HER STORY

She doesn't just play reggae. She lives it.

Sistah Vibes grew up with reggae in Costa Rica. The music came with her to the Canary Islands, where she has been part of the scene for years: behind the decks, on the microphone and on the dance floor.

For many years she taught dancehall, so she feels a crowd before it moves. On the radio she shares the history behind the records. On festival stages she hosts thousands and introduces the artists everyone came for.

Promoters book her because she knows the culture. She plays what belongs together and keeps a floor alive from the first track to the last.

Reggae from Costa Rica.
Dancehall in her feet.
Festivals in her voice.
